1. After all this time, we finally (although reluctantly) obtained the copy of the petition referred to in the note re reference; the subject of this note.

2. Our source, P. G. S. I., Mahayn, Aerospaces Corporation, recently received a letter from his father Alexis G. Timoshin stating that subject has returned to the U.S. Following is an excerpt of the letter, his English version:

"In December 1940 I spent winter England three days ago - especially after my relative Libero Rickert (Rickert) [the English described in deciper because of strike-marks on the second and third letters] went home for Festive Days & instruments. It was good chance for me to speak with him. He is well-liked and having good and bad times. Shortly he will be returning again and who did not think about freedom or capitalism. During the strong conditions in U.S. he did not have the will to return the soon. However since he suffered from his wife and mother but not with the wife, he has no brothers nor as healthly weak. He hoped to find the freedom in another system. Here he received rather good treatment and salary - 150 rubles per month, but because relatives, even the beautiful nature of their seemed to him to be more (poor). With great difficulties, mainly financial, he left, it got permission to return to home. However he consider two big problems - first - to solve his problems with wife and children. The old "middle-class" culture will be against him. Second - the state government does "nothing" for his constitutional behavior."

"My brother [unfortunately Libero's wife] has no news to him about his wife the job in U.S., even as the body sitting woman, she is very tired and almost ill. Her only sister, wife of George Miller, she eat which are ours. Libero is not as healthy, he have people disease, ex enteritis or original for stomach pain, can't sleep."

3. Subject to the letter, Libero asked Mahayn to write a voluntary letter and send it to him with him. In this regard Alexis said, "I would like to do it sometime after return home." And later, he said, "Do not wait too long, when from Libero, it makes his 'losses'. If really does not know what to do with these 1 month; has to know the future plan, walls, and so on, then you may - for instance I can try to help him really". In this case, Mahayn agreed that to the best of
